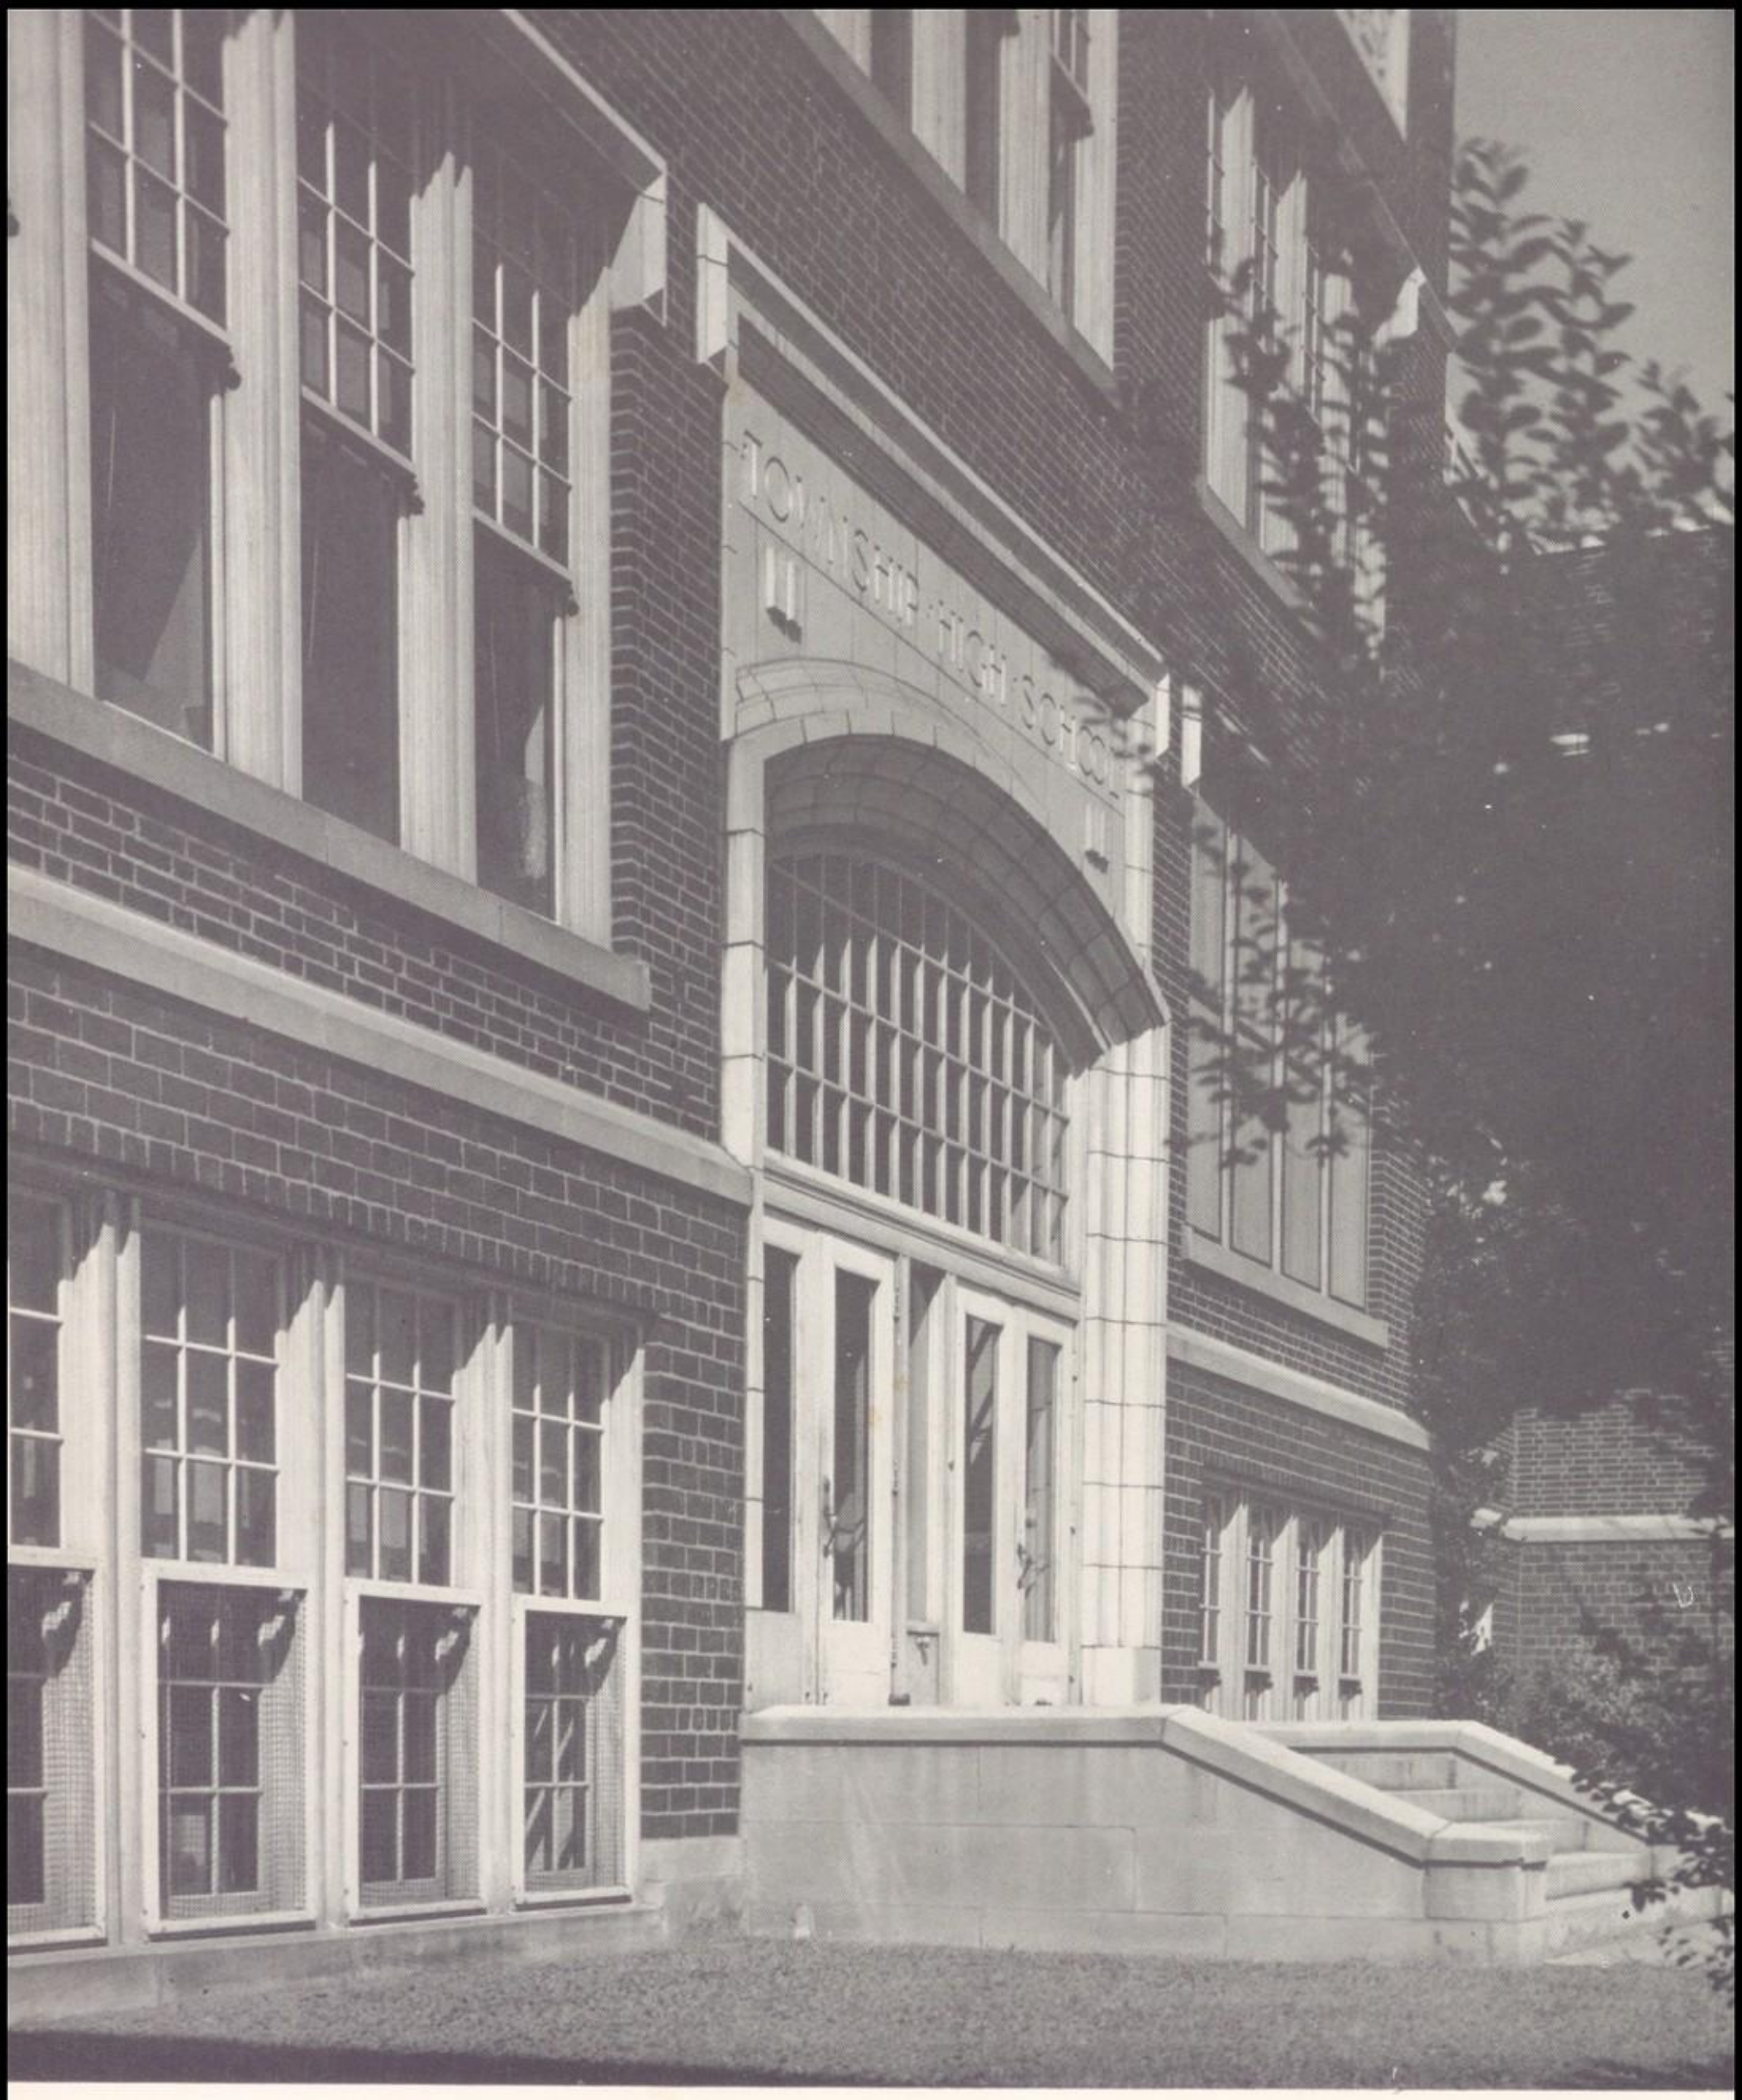
The lights dim — the curtain parts — and the spotlights reveal the outstanding events at the Belleville Township High School. The scenes change to include all the cast and their parts in the play. Turn the pages and enjoy the drama of life at B.T.H.S. in 1951-52.

"Cool, Cool Water"

"Best Foot Forward"



"Be patient.
Our playwright may show
In some fifth act what this wild drama means"
Alfred, Lord Tennyson

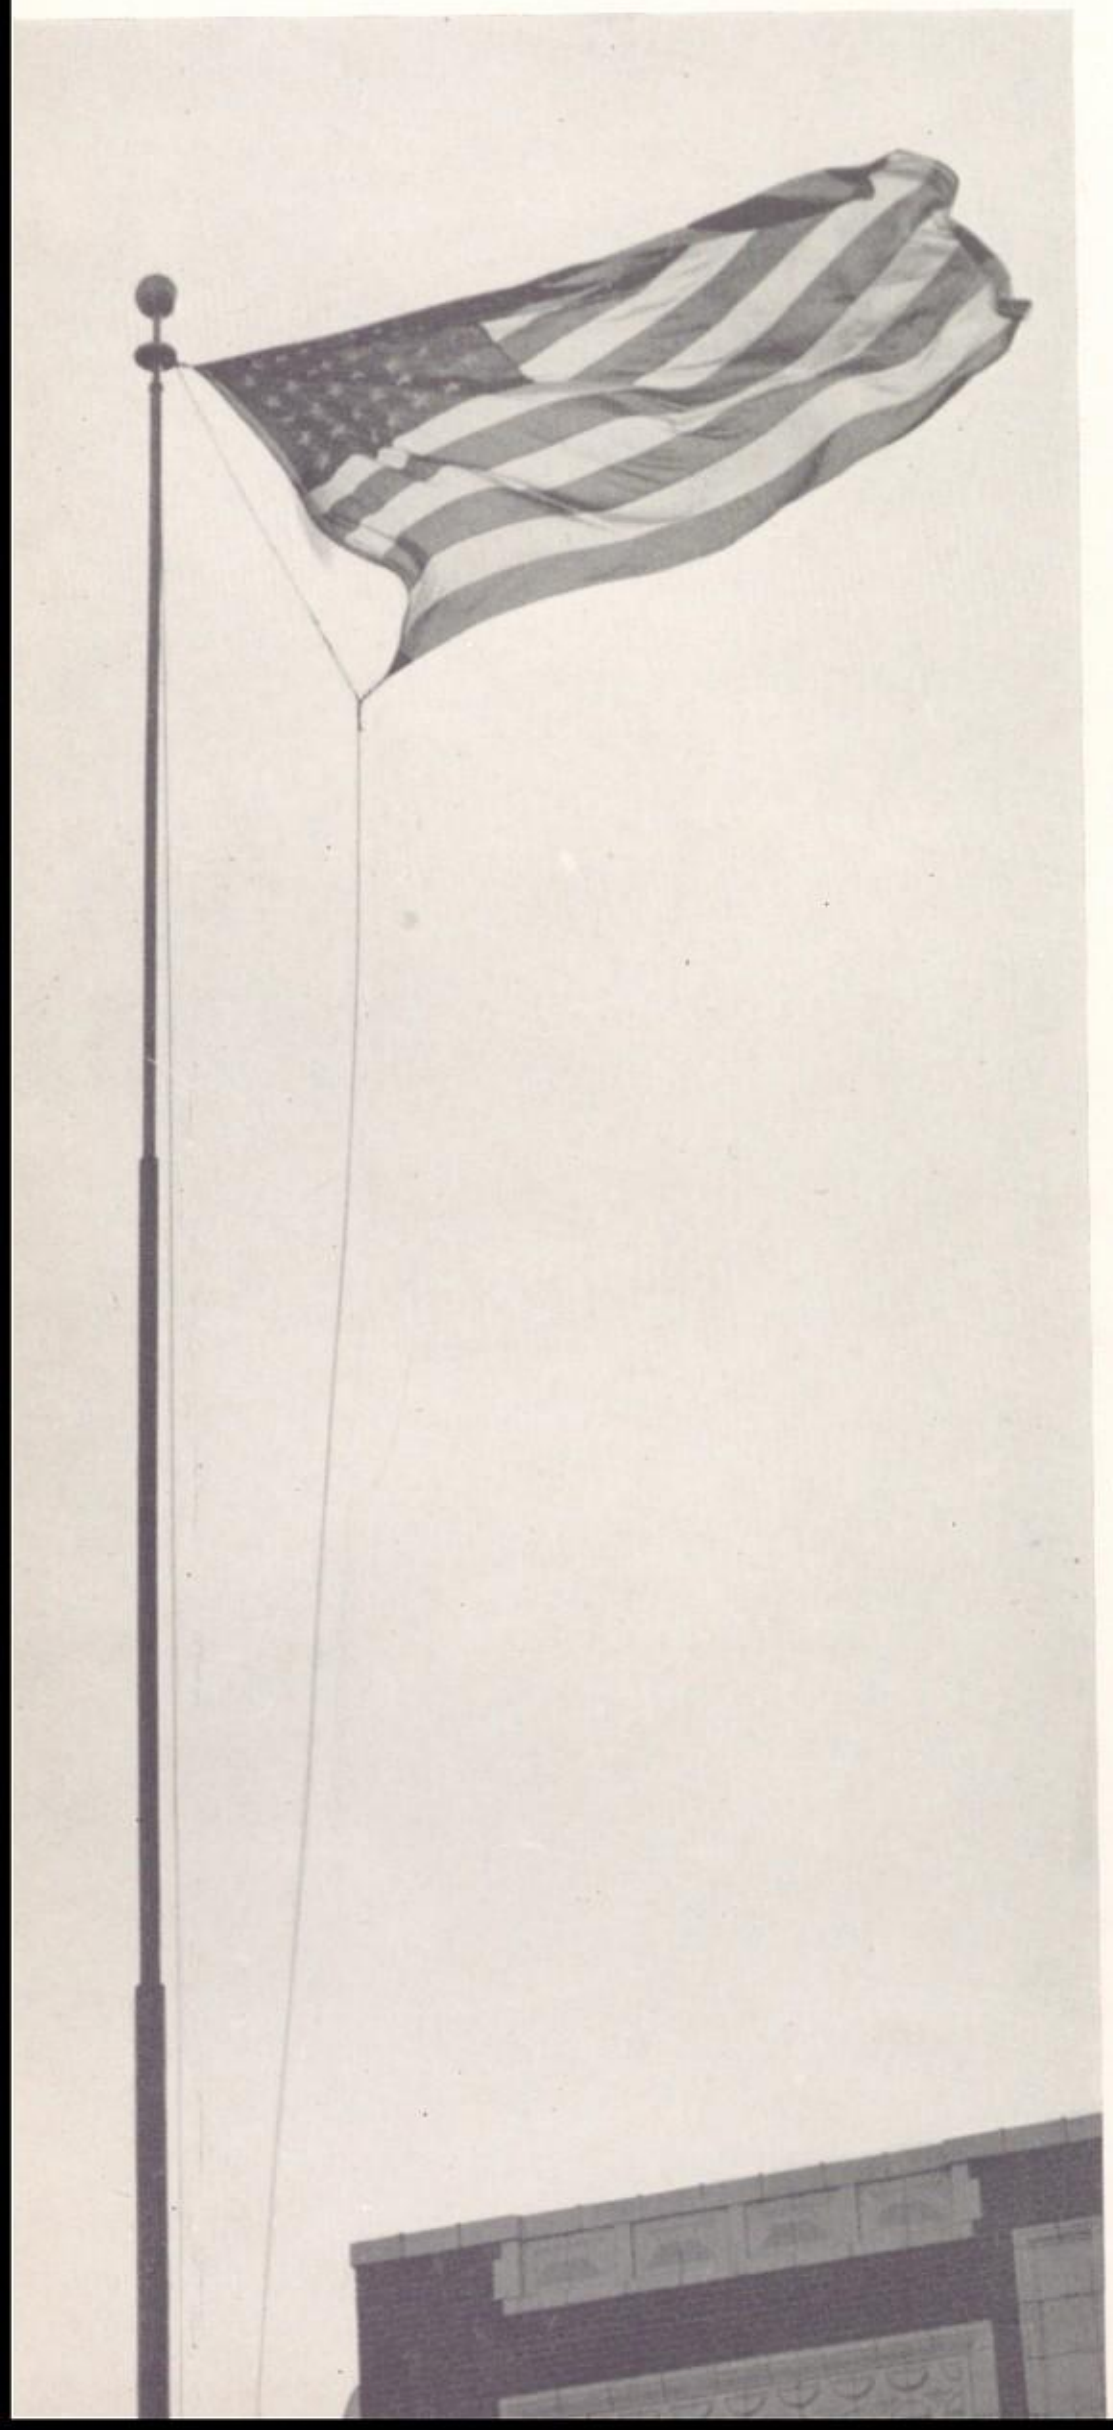
Mr. Fred Lauder

honoring

Always smiling - - - even in class!

His ready smile and friendly manner have encouraged and inspired us. During our freshman days he helped us get acquainted with our school and made us feel at ease. He always listened patiently to our problems and gave sound advice. We came to know him as "a good guy." Therefore, with sincere appreciation and respect the staff dedicates the 1952 Bellevinois to Mr. Fred Lauder.

from then to now



The location of Belleville's first high school—Central High—was the south end of the present Junior High School property. In 1917 the high school moved to its present location at 2600 West Main and became the Belleville Township High School. Mr. H. G. Schmidt was principal, with a faculty of sixteen teachers, a physical plant consisting of the main building and the cafeteria-shops addition, and a student body composed of 348 pupils, including 27 graduating seniors. The following year the girls' gym was added, and as the years passed, the campus grew with the addition of the auditorium in 1924, the library in 1934, the boys' gym in 1935, the stadium and farm shops in 1940, and the auto shops in 1942. Today the faculty includes seventy-five teachers under the leadership of Dr. H. O. Hall, superintendent, and Mr. F. J. Friedli, assistant superintendent. The school district has been enlarged to include many outlying areas to provide an up-to-date education for 1303 students. Belleville enjoys one of the most complete all-around training units in Illinois, with facilities and training offered in departments of English, language, social science, mathematics, natural science, physical science, music, art, physical education, shops, agriculture, commerce, and mechanics. For thirty-one years B.T.H.S. has had its bimonthly paper, the Hy News, and for thirty-five years, its yearbook, the Bellevinois.

synopsis

September the sixth, Nineteen fifty-one,
The curtain had risen, the show had begun.
The actors of Township, taking their parts,
Began a drama, dear to their hearts.
For some their Senior year finally had come,
Others, their Junior Days had begun.
We can't forget those sophomores, "superior"
and strong,
And the green little freshmen, trying not to do wrong.
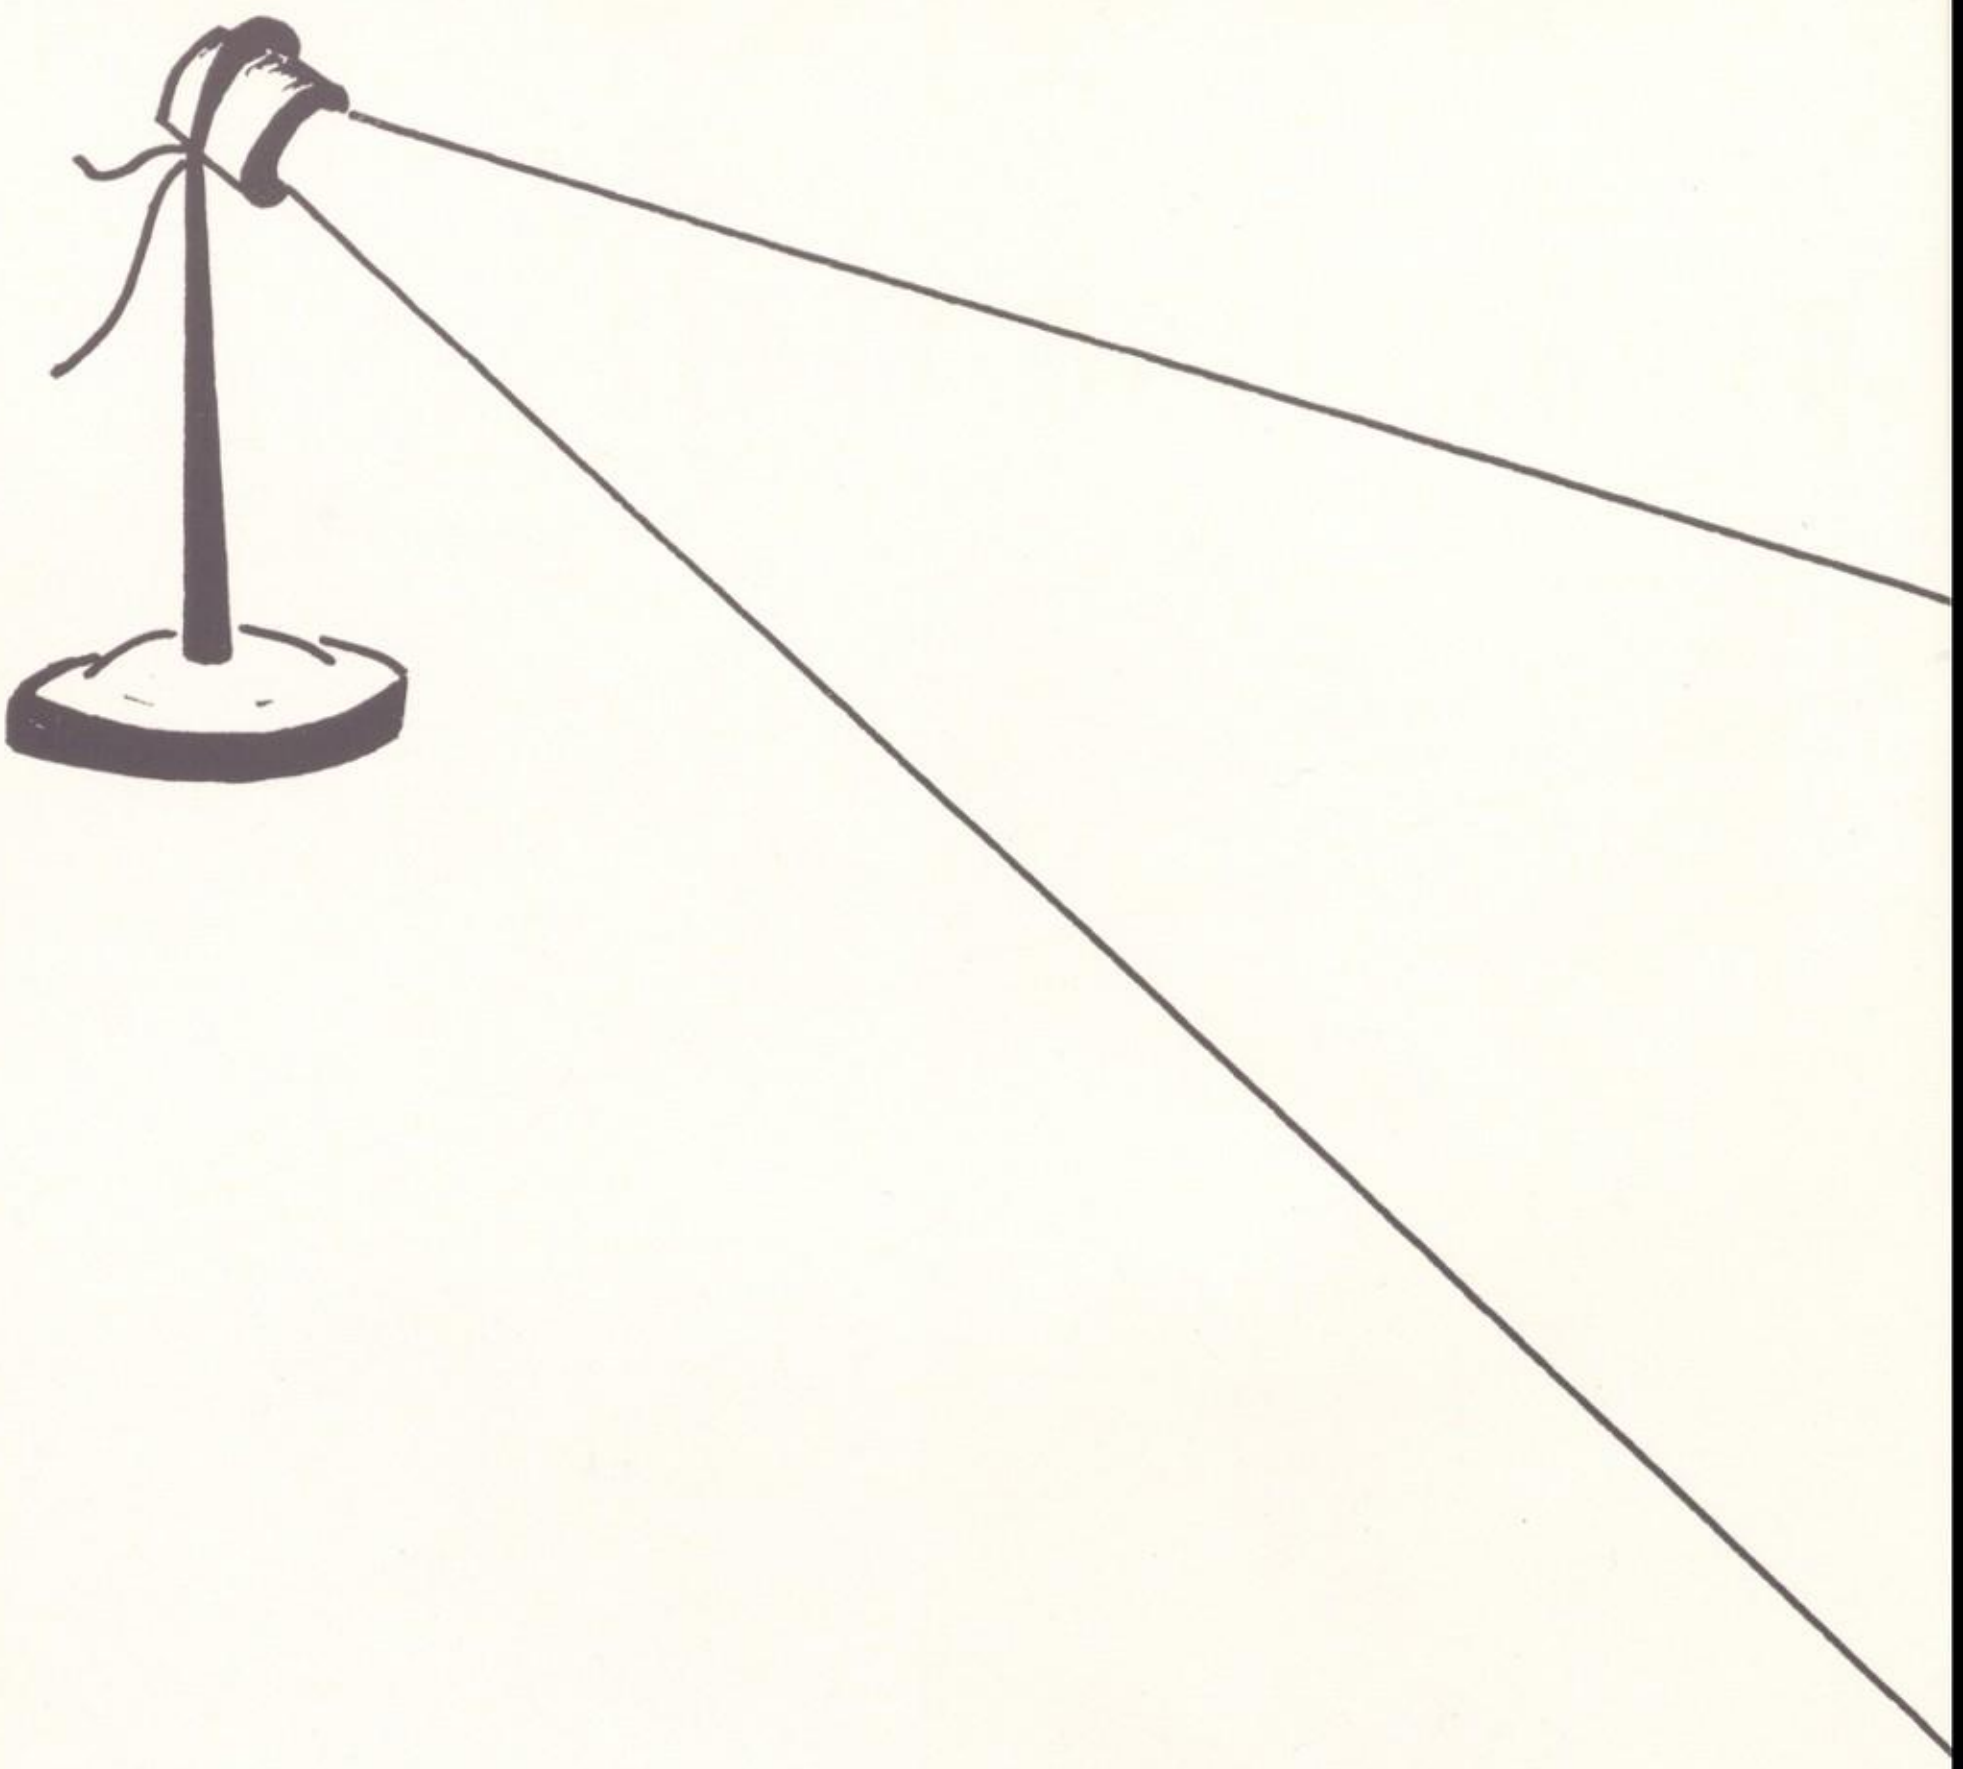
The teachers had returned, except for a few,
To direct this cast in a production quite new.
The days passed quickly, each with new things,
Assemblies, clubs and junior class rings.
Now, all is completed in this year's show,
Soon the curtain will fall; some actors will go.
Let's hope that this curtain never fails to rise,
On the drama of life in our Township High.

—Helen Cox, '52



Putting the actors through their paces are the directors of "Life at B.T.H.S." In our production the parts as directors are taken by Dr. Hall, Mr. Friedli, and the faculty. Necessary in every production of a successful play are the business managers, and the producers. In "Life at B.T.H.S." the office staff and Board of Education fill these positions. Although these people never appear on the stage, they are important to our play.

production staff

the directors

Dr. Hall and Mr. Friedli are the men who direct the play. They are held responsible for the smoothness and efficiency with which the play is produced.

the stars farewell

Now is the time for us, the class of '52, to bid farewell to our high school days. We are turning our faces from the past and are striving to go "Forever Forward" to the goals of success and happiness.

We owe our sincerest thanks to our faculty and parents for their patience and instruction during the past four years. Through their guidance we have become more capable to face the task of building and maintaining a peaceful world for the generations that are to follow. With pleasant memories of many worthwhile activities and happy associations — especially the memory of defeating East Side, 20-6, in the Thanksgiving Day game and of repeating the victory in the Regional basketball tournament by a score of 48-45 — we say goodbye to Belleville Township High School.

honor society

The National Honor Society consists of students in the upper fifteen percent of their graduating class. They are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service to the school. This year twenty-nine seniors were selected for membership.

d. a. r. award

Margaret Keim was selected by the Senior Class and the Daughters of the American Revolution to receive the D. A. R. Award for Good Citizenship. The candidate was chosen on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

hy news citizenship award

This year's annual Hy News School Citizenship Award was presented to Margaret Keim. The Hy News presents this award to a student who has initiative, personality, manners, goodwill, uprightness, cooperation with the faculty, proper attitude toward his work, and an average of B or above. This student is chosen by a faculty committee from a list of candidates selected by the students and faculty.

The four final candidates were Margaret Keim, Shirley Koderhandt, Bill Mayr, Rosanne Rezny.

The 1952 Bellevinois was compiled and edited by a group of seniors who were selected on the basis of dependability, scholarship, and willingness to work.

Work on the book began from nothing in September and continued until June when the finished product returned from the binder. The work was divided among three staffs — editorial, literary, and business — and coordinated under the very capable direction of the editor, Margaret Keim, assisted by a cooperative and willing group of staff members.

During the months in which the book is in the making each member does his own share of the many different things to be done in order to produce a permanent record of school life. However, all work and no play can become monotonous, so work is mixed with fun on the Bellevinois staff, and many lasting friendships are formed as a result of shared activity.

hy news

The Hy News, the school paper, is issued seven times a semester by an applied journalism staff in co-operation with the journalism class, all under the supervision of Miss Lilian Jossem.

Students may take journalism in place of English and thus become members of the cub staff. Students who do good work are asked to serve as a member of the applied staff.

The story of "The Golden Trail" was presented on November 16. The setting of the operetta is California during the gold rush of '49, and involves a stolen consignment of gold and the coveted Alvarado family jewels. Don Carlos Alvarado and his only daughter, the Dona Barbarita Alvarado, are obliged to halt at the Golden Trail Hotel on their way to a birthday celebration at Sonora in honor of Barbarita. Don Pedro Carranza and his band of ranchers arrive at the hotel at the same time. When Charles Harrington, a pony express rider and a friend of the family, is chased in by bandits, the excitement begins. Romance blossoms between Barbarita and Charles, and the intrigue of the mystery becomes deep. When the story ends, it is learned that Don Pedro and his rancheros are the bandits. The announcement of Barbarita and Charles' betrothal brings a happy ending.

The cast was made up of the following: Bob Pinkerton, Helen Cox, Doris Vogt, Dick Brown, Arthur Popkess, Beate Keitel, Allan Perrin, Kenneth Oesterle, Walter Gilfilen, Doris Weihl, Joan Diller, Ron Kraus, Ken Castelli, Fred Wehrle, Richard Eidman, Eugene Courtney, Peggy Shank. The choir, mixed chorus, and dance chorus also participated.

The operetta was directed by Miss Hope Baer and Miss Marjorie Switzer.

girls' sextette

The Girls' Sextette participated in many music programs and entertainments in the area, including school assemblies, civic meetings, and churches. It gave several performances in the hospital wards at Scott Air Base, and took part in a March of Dimes benefit show.

GIRLS' SEXTETTE: Beate Keitel, Doris Vogt, Helen Cox, Barbara Marshall, Joan Diller, Joanna Pratt.

a capella choir

The A Capella Choir is the selected choral group of the school. Most of its members have taken part in the Mixed Chorus for at least one semester. The choir has taken part in school assemblies, church services, and the operetta.

COMPETITION

The Little Theatre is composed of students who are interested in theatrical productions. Membership is granted to those who participate in one of the class plays, either as a member of the cast or of a crew. Membership is retained only by participation in one of the annual productions.

The National Thespian Organization is an honorary society for those who have done outstanding work in the Little Theatre.

BEHIND THE SCENES

This year the Little Theatre gave a play in assembly, entitled "Someone for Bunny." The director was Miss Betty Edmiston. The story centered around Peter and Barbara, who wanted to marry, but first had to find someone for Bunny, Barbara's old beau. But none of Peter's lovely friends interested Bunny, not even vivacious Irene. Complications arose, however, when both Peter and Bunny became interested in Susie, a friend of Bunny's. Finally, they found someone for Bunny and Peter and Barbara were at last free to marry.

"THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER"

Sheriden Whiteside, notorious lecturer and author, accepts a dinner invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stanley, while on a speaking engagement in Mesalia, Ohio. As Whiteside is leaving the house, he slips on the Stanley doorstep and is forced to remain in their home to recover.

Whiteside takes over the household and insists that room be made for his secretary, Maggie Cutler, and his various gifts, including a cockroach village, an octopus, and some penguins.

Bert Jefferson, a local newspaper editor, comes to interview Whiteside, and Maggie becomes very much interested in him. Whiteside is so frantic at the thought of losing his faithful secretary that he induces his lovely friend, Lorraine Sheldon, to come to Mesalia and vamp Jefferson.

Lorraine succeeds in persuading Bert to go to Lake Placid with her to work on his new play. But at the last minute, Whiteside realizes that he is being unfair to Maggie, so with the help of his comedian friend, Banjo, they ship Lorraine away in a mummy case.

At last Whiteside is leaving, but as he is walking down the steps, he again slips and is once more carried back into the Stanley home.

Miss Margaret Hallock was the director and the following people made up the cast: Gloria Botkin, Lyle Simons, Doris Niklich, Milton McLean, Nancy Kennedy, Joetta Schuhart, Margaret Keim, Peg Iberg, Fred Nold, Barbara Hesse, J. D. Trabue, Arthur Popkess, Beate Keitel, David Creath, Tom Thomas, Jo Ann Voyles, Dick Brown, David Peskind.

Father holds a family council.

the sophomore play

"CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN"

This is a true story of a real family—the Gilbreth family, and takes place in the 1920's. The story is told by two of the older children, and centers around Dad and his eldest daughter, Anne. Anne is ready to wear make-up, up-to-date clothes, and to date, but she has a hard time convincing domineering, time-saving, efficient Dad that she is right.

Dad scares Anne's first boy friend, Joe Scales, and her dream man, Larry, is almost afraid to date her. Things begin to go well, until the school teacher, Miss Brill, accuses Anne of cheating on her exams. Anne proves she didn't cheat by passing another exam with flying colors.

"A DATE WITH PAUL"

Lynne Nolan, the bookworm of the family, never seemed to have a chance when her charming sister Melicent was around. But with the help of little brother, Theodore, she got a date with Paul, who didn't find Milicent's dumb actions at all attractive.

Miss Margaret Hallock directed this play and the cast included Nancy Blair Lynne Wells, Ron Koch, Betty Tate, Julie Marifian, and Bill Bonville.

"HOUSE OF GREED"

Jerry McArthur, a carpet sweeper salesman, tried to sell Letitia Roberts a sweeper. She didn't wish to buy one, but McArthur gave her one try. When her maid came home, she found Letitia dead. Detective Brooks was called and immediately the blame was placed on Letitia's nephew, Cedric. Cedric proved that Brooks, McArthur, and the maid plotted her murder.

Mr. James Pleasant directed this play and the cast included Janis Davies, Susie Smith, Mary Lou Iberg, Marcia Schroeder, David O'Neal, Richard Weathers, and Jay Bell.

"THE EARLY WORM"

Hector Brown got up at the crack of dawn to call his girl friend, Gladys, for a date so he wouldn't have to go out with his sister's English friend, Penelope Beals. Hector had many interruptions trying to talk to her, but he finally persuaded Gladys to go with him. When he saw Penelope, however, he changed his mind. Hector persuaded his friend to go with Gladys and he went skating with Penelope.

Miss Madge Ream directed this play and the cast included Treva Novy, Raoul Baptiste, Sammy Kurkjian, Jeanette Rief, Angela Cochran, and Donald Cross.

b.t.h.s. basketball squad

The Belleville Maroons opened the 1951-52 basketball season under new direction — that of Coach Freeark. Despite a poor season's record, the Belleville cagers kept fighting to the very end.

Going into the regional tournament, Belleville was given very little notice. But they advanced far . . . . beating the favored East St. Louis Flyers and then defeating the powerful O'Fallon team, thanks to the painstaking efforts of Coach Freeark and the exceptional team spirit that prevailed all season.

Since the majority of the squad were sophomores and juniors, a lot is expected of the team next season.

Dependable Performance . . .

AS you embark upon your journey through life, to undertake the duties of your chosen occupation, success depends upon the performance with which you execute these duties.

The American way of life has always been attributed to dependable performance, by its discoverers, explorers, and generation after generation of its settlers.

We stand in peril today of losing that way of life . . . because dependable performance is gradually being replaced by a premium on incapability, dishonesty, and ignorance.

As each successive graduating class has faced its challenge, so do you today . . . the challenge of Dependable Performance . . . the foundation of America.

SEPTEMBER

6 School opens. Students quit summer jobs. No more work for the winter!

7 Don Traube slightly embarrassed to find he's the only boy among 26 girls in office occupations class.

8 Much needed rest after two hectic days of school.

9 Seniors go to church and pray for not much work and good grades.

10 Staff meeting. Only $600 in debt. Blue Monday — rain.

11 Jr. College Lounge off limits for Bellevinois Staff — thanks to Miss Bell.

13 Pep Rally — Bonfire. Parade. Staff sold popcorn, donuts and coffee. Team gave a cheer. Niklich burned popcorn.

14 Maroons take Roosevelt Rough Riders for a ride — 38-13.

15 Staff room painted. Staff members decide to throw away peroxide and use yellow paint on their hair instead. Is it from painting the ceiling that Shirley Pfeiffer acquired that strained neck?

17 BTHS girls anxiously looking for new coach — Freeark.

18 Still looking — freshman, sophomore pictures. Margie Maas expresses the hope that Miss Farmer won't grade on "grammatical destruction."

19 Chemistry class — odors - - - Bill Mayr sits on moth in Civics.

21 Quincy — there - - - Maroons drown out Devils — 13-6. Rubinoff concert inspires students — decide to spend 75c and get out of class. First club meetings.

24 What has the counting of nails in Ron Schrauth's desk got to do with the study of Canada? Ask Miss Bell's 5th hr. World Geography class.

25 Marilyn Werner hits Miss Wheeler on head with tennis ball — then mysteriously disappears.

26 Marilyn back in gym class. No hard feelings, only a hard head, I guess.

27 Miss Ream decides to fill position of assistant basketball coach.

28 Cleveland here. Walloped by Maroons — 19-0!

OCTOBER

2 Senior pictures. Jim Breitweiser exclaims, "Who would want to look at 12 pictures of me? Ask Joan Lentz!

4 Assembly. Annual speech. Pete wonders how to end Sally — shoot her!!

5 Wood River Oilers here. Well oiled by Maroons — 34-13. Club meetings.

8 Staff room mouse appears — then disappears. A squeak is heard in the dark room.

10 Freshman plays — Freshman begin making money early — three plays at one time — fine job, kids.

11 Day off!!! Long-awaited vacation after hectic month of school.

12 Another day off!! Maroons maul Pana Panthers — 16-0. Team and rooters have a gay time in Vandalia — fight, shopping spree. Where did you get that tie, Gus?

15 Senior proofs arrive. Everyone very discouraged when they see what they look like to others.

17 Pinkerton says some people try to get out of paying taxes by saying they have 20 children when they only have 10. Hmmm.

18 Students enjoy holiday while Cross, Freidli, Hall, Jossem are away. Magazine assembly.

19 Cathedral here. Mauled by Maroons and Gary Zbornak's educated toe. Clubs 5th hour.

21 Blizzard today.

22 Mr. Cross snowed under with work catching up with people who skipped Thursday and Friday.

25 Granite City here. Maroons chalk up 7th win. Defeat Granite 28-0.

30 Senior test. All bemoan fact. School is full of first-class idiots.

31 Notice any goblins running around —or were they only Seniors out Hallo-weening?

NOVEMBER

2 Collinsville here. No joy at BTHS— Maroons lose 12-6. Club period. Football queen candidates nominated.

5 Tim Daley buries Shirley Goalby's books in popcorn can. Did your popcorn taste different?

6 No school. Snowed under. Seems funny everyone made it to all the parties — but you know those buses.

7 Snow again. Just couldn't quite get to school.

9 Alton comes here and snows under the Maroons 12-6.

12 Mr. D. Edwards gives definition of cake — stabilized fluff.

15 "Four Bottles of Whiskey" recited in Miss Stenger's English class. Never a dull moment.

16 Operetta — "The Golden Trail" — gave audience a fine evening of entertainment, as the hero and villains fought it out.

21 Hobo Day. Assembly and exciting parade to square. BTHS prepares for big game with eggs and tomatoes, etc. Wally Reissen proves to be a generous pal.

22 Thanksgiving Day. Maroons at Parson's Field. We carried off Victory Bell by defeating Flyers 20-6. Marilyn Liebig crowned queen at BTHS Victory Dance. Everyone celebrates over victory — until the wee hours of morning.

26 A birthday party in the Staff Room. It seems that everyone became ill except Shirley Pfeiffer.

27 Basketball. Nashville here. Maroons lose.

28 Assembly on Narcotics. Students begin to look for dope peddlers at BTHS.

29 Some joker put limburger cheese on the radiators in W. W. Hall's class. Smell was terrific. The class wondered if he had a cold since he didn't seem to smell anything.

30 Pinckneyville there. Maroons lose. It was a nice trip anyhow.

DECEMBER

3 Blue Monday. Limburger again used in Hall's class. You'll have to try again, Haentzler.

4 Jerseyville here. We lost.

5 Little Theatre Play in assembly. Audience well entertained with "Someone for Bunny."

6 Mr. D. Edwards informs Ken Castelli that Seniors are no longer expected to study since they know it all.

10 Main product of Alaska? "Ice" chorused W. W.'s civics class.

13 Mr. Tabor tells his "Fly" story again.

14 "Cheaper by the Dozen" staged by sophomores.

17 Miss Farmer reminisces about her old brass "Gas" Buick.

18 Question brought up in Civics class: Is citizenship in two countries called bigamy?

19 Donna Lowe "The Charleston Girl" did her act for Spanish class today. Wow!

20 Xmas assembly. Gramlich models Hessler's Xmas present. Was her face red!

21 Students enjoy parties all day. Five little angels — Daley, Peskind, Popkess, Riggan, and Wells, go caroling in Library 4a. Student Council Xmas Dance. Everyone enjoyed Santa.

JANUARY

1 Do you have a headache?

3 Students struggle back to school after a wonderful vacation.

4 Basketball at Edwardsville. Macbeth's Witches confer in Miss Ream's classes.

7 Boycotts, Girlcotts, and Apricots discussed in Civics class.

10 Won't Don Mappes ever learn? He fell off his chair in typing class twice today.

11 Alton came to visit Maroons — went away happy.

14 Everyone happy — Dutch Girl reopens.

16 Mr. Tabor! Again? One of these days that "Fly" will have to get over to the other side of the room.

18 Final exams start!!! Maroons entertained Collinsville — you know — just another game!

21 Senior girls took on some Junior girls in a game of basketball. What a game —who won—Seniors, natch. Mr. Freeark had better look into this score—46-6.

22 Finals. Believe it or not—our Cagers won a game against Hillsboro—54-50.

23 Finals, mid-year. Grads feel a little sad. Strange as it may seem, they miss the place.

25 Donkey Basketball Game. Senior girls and boys vs. the donkeys. Seems strange, but the donkeys won. It was fun, but, oh my chin!

26 Final grades sent out. Familiar story —"I just can't understand how I got that low grade."

28 Registration for Freshman and Sophomores. Mr. Hexter warns that no boy is to be in Foods Class — and it was such a nice course, too.

29 Registration for Juniors and Seniors. Early bird Juniors arrive at 1:30 A.M. to register. What's this going to lead to?

30 First day of new semester. Again we have locker trouble, confused freshman and all that goes with it. Mr. Edwards is a little discouraged at seeing mask of smiling faces again in chemistry.

31 Lucky Senior 8's dismissed from 6th hour study. They hold study hall at the "Girl."

FEBRUARY

1 Another basketball game—nuff said.

2 Seniors discuss nudist colonies in Sociology. Quite a few decide the course might prove to be interesting after all.

4 Students resent 9c chips, so bring their own lunch to school. This inflation!

7 Flu epidemic hits school. Seems like everyone is getting sick.

8 East St. Louis here — need we tell who won. Another sock pulling show by Dehner.

12 No school. Everyone gives a silent prayer in memory of Honest Abe.

14 Happy Valentines Day.

15 Little Theatre Play —"Stage Door."

18 The "Mutt" is adopted by BTHS Spends all day touring English classes.

19 Mutt settled down in Hansleben's room for a nice long sleep.

22 Will wonders never cease — a whole holiday. Even though George Washington could never tell a lie some Seniors can.

25 Miss Bell loves her class so much she fixes the door so they can't get out.

27 All students decide to give up school for Lent.

29 Cathedral here. Belleville retains city championship by defeating the Crusaders.

MARCH

3 Maroons again host to Regional Basketball Tournament.

4 Belleville Maroons down Flyers 48-45 in opening game of Regional Basketball Tournament!!!

5 Manring commits unforgiveable sin —burns the popcorn.

6 Belleville Maroons defeat O'Fallon in overtime.

7 Club period. Maroons meet Waterloo in final game. We lost the game—and the egg fight!

10 Jo Schuhart lectures to 2nd hour Chemistry class twenty-five minutes on subject she knows absolutely nothing about.

11 Students must stay out of sunken garden. No grass must grow under our feet.

12 Miss Kindred has her 3rd hour English class listening to the newspaper. Interesting.

14 Assembly. National Honor Society members of '52 class introduced.

17 St. Patrick's Day. Everyone wears freshman colors — GREEN.

18 Is yawning contagious? Everyone seems to be doing it.

20 Spring is sprung. The grass is riz, I wonder where warm weather is.

APRIL

2 How did Jo Ann Voyles happen to get gum in her hair at play practice? Ask Dave Creath.

4 Miss Farmer wants to build a house —just slap some boards together and there it is. Just think of the fun!

11 No School. Good Friday vacation begins.

13 Easter is here—and all the eggs are cracked!

14 No school. Easter Monday.

15 Back to school after a wonderful Easter vacation. Miss Bell comes back with an engagement ring.

25 Senior Play —"The Man Who Came to Dinner." Everyone was greatly entertained.

28 Question brought up for debate in sociology class—is Hadacol a fad?

30 Milton McLean says people have only one nose. Amazing what one nose. Amazing what one learns at BTHS!

MAY

6 Lyle Simons asserted he didn't make his book report by reading a comic book — he looked at the pictures.

7 The Choir under the direction of Miss Hope Baer, presented the annual Music Festival. Very well done.

8 It is rumored that the Juniors think they can surpass our Junior Jam. Ha! Ha! Who are they trying to kid!

12 Don't feel bad, freshman. Seniors can't spell either. They spell pants, "pance."

19 Where should one's eyes be when driving: on the road or in one's head?

JUNE

1 Seniors go to church again. Final plea for mercy through the coming week.

2 Blue Monday — not because it's wash day. Too much week-end.

8 Underclassmen follow senior advice —churches getting quite crowded.

12 Seniors entertained by juniors at annual prom. Hmmm!! What a dance.

13 Graduation on Friday the 13th. Sighs and sobs. The curtain comes down on another year at BTHS.

14 Rejuvenation starts.
